Teachers have to follow the following regulations before, during, and after the final round:

- I agree to not publish the final exam or any problems of the final exam and to keep it secret before and after the final exam was held.
- I agree to strictly limit the time of the final exam to 60 minutes.
- I make sure that the students do not use any electronic devices (e.g. internet, calculators) or any information sources (e.g. notes, books) during the exam.
- I agree to not give any assistance to the students or to help them before or during the exam and to prohibit any assistance among the students.
- I agree to report any students that try to cheat before or during the exam.
- I agree to not manipulate the answers of the students and to submit the exact answers given by the students during the 60 minutes exam.
- I confirm that I am not personally related (e.g. family members) to any of the students.
- I understand that the IAAC uses various methods to detect cheating in the final round and that cheating results in immediate disqualification.
